Brunello di Montalcino DOCG, Fattoria dei Barbi 2018

— Mike DeSimone, Jeff Jensen —

“ The vineyards and land surrounding Fattoria dei Barbi have been owned by the Cinelli Colombini family since 1352. They have produced Brunello since 1892 [...] Today the winery is under the command of Stefano Cinelli Colombini, who oversees the production of his family’s quality wine. The 2018 is garnet ruby colored with aromas of black raspberry, black plum, and tobacco leaf and has flavors of cherry, cranberry, and Mission fig enveloped in generous, round tannins.”
