TERROIRSENSE
WINE REVIEW

September 2023

Brunello di Montalcino DOCG,
Fattoria dei Barbi
Vigna del Fiore 2018

— Ian D'Agata —

“ Good red. Slightly reticent aromas of red fruit and orange peel on the very clean, fresh nose. Then similarly brooding in the mouth, currently not showing much fruit but slightly more minerality. Closes long and precise and will likely improve with another eight years of cellaring, but I couldn't help coming away with the feeling this will always be a slightly fruit-challenged Vigna del Fiore. Drinking window: 2028-2038. ”
