Brunello di Montalcino DOCG, Fattoria dei Barbi 2017

—Michael Godel—

“ An aromatic Annata for Brunello and without a doubt a Barbi, belonging to no one else. [...] Fruit stylistic, cool, sweetly savoury, of clay, sand and Galestro infiltration. The estate style is the most important which means the cellar-master (Maurizio Cecchini) is more important than the oenologist(s). That is the truth. Not a rich wine or vintage obvious but so perfectly correct for style and place. That said there is a Mediterranean feel here, especially in 2017, of black olive, autumn floor and finally sweet wood. Worked as it should be and careful to carry the crest and the flag. Drink 2022-2027. Tasted November 2021. ”
