Brunello di Montalcino DOCG, Fattoria dei Barbi Riserva 2019

Eric Guido

“The 2019 Brunello di Montalcino Riserva is dark and rich in the glass, featuring notes of cherry and plum sauce, wild herbs, hints of smoke and camphor. This is silky smooth, nearly weighty in feet mixing tart blackberries and wild strawberries over a core of saline minerals. It leaves an earthy resonance along with steely mineral tones and edgy tannins under an air of violet inner florals. Drinking Window: 2026 – 2036”
