Brunello di Montalcino DOCG, Fattoria dei Barbi Vigna del Fiore 2020

Eric Guido

“ This Brunello [...] boasts a youthfully coy notes of dried black cherries, rosemary, sage, crushed stones and dusty earth. It's cool-toned and sleek, with polished wild berry fruits that swirl beneath an air of sweet lavender as fine tannins slowly saturate toward the close. This displays fantastic balance and depth, finishing long and tannic yet fresh, with hints of citrus-laced blackberries and licorice. This is a spectacular effort from this warm vintage. Drinking Window: 2026 - 2036 ”
